

EVERYONE CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE 2009 WAYNE COUNTY FAIR

The 154th annual Wayne County Fair, August 10-15 is fast approaching and no matter how old you are, you can participate in the Fair located in Palmyra, NY. If you make it, bake it or grow it, the Fair has a competition you can enter.

Do you make craft items, sew, quilt, work with wood or have a unique collection? Is your vegetable garden producing great results? Do you have flowers in your garden or houseplants that you have given tender loving care? Are you known for your famous homemade pies or your great photography?

All of the above and more can be entered in the Wayne County Fair regardless of your age and if you live in Wayne, Monroe, Ontario, Seneca, Cayuga, Yates, Steuben or Wyoming counties. All non-perishable entries are accepted on Saturday, August 8 from 9 am to 5 pm. Judging will be on Sunday, August 9 at 1 pm. Perishable entries must be in place before 10 am on Monday, August 10 with judging taking place at 10:30 am.

For more information, contact Linda Valley at 315-502-4072, Gerry Dekdebrun, 315-926-4926 or Eleanor Giles at 315-597-5061.
