WAYNE COUNTY FAIR QUEEN/PRINCESS CRITERIA

- Contestants must be single, never married, nor given birth to a child. Contestants must be currently attending a public/parochial school or being home schooled with a passing average and a resident of Wayne County or a member of a Wayne County 4-H Club. Winners must be available for appearances through the 3rd week in September 2010.
- Contestants must be able to listen and take direction from pageant committee members. Failure to do so will result in being asked to not compete or if selected, asked to relinquish your crown.
- No Queen/Princess candidate or elected Queen/Princess, shall consume any alcohol or drugs, smoke or swear during any pre-pageant activity or Fair event, or otherwise conduct herself not in the keeping with the standing of that of a Fair Queen or Princess.
- Any Queen/Princess candidate, or elected Queen/Princess who shall be arrested, or who's activities shall give an appearance of impropriety, during the pre-pageant activities, or after her election, shall be subject to review by the Queen/Princess Superintendents, and if the candidate or Queen/Princess activities shall be found not to be consistent with the high standards expected of a Queen/Princess, then the Queen/Princess will be expected to tender her resignation and to withdraw from the competition, or to surrender her crown and title and allow her successor to succeed her regardless of the date of such action or determination.
- Any contestant currently reigning as a queen or princess from another organization that would conflict with being able to fulfill responsibilities if chosen as Wayne County Fair Queen or Princess or member of the court, is NOT eligible to compete until their reign is over.
- Members of the Queen/Princess Courts receive U.S. Savings Bonds. These bonds will not be awarded to the Queen/Princess & Courts until they have successfully fulfilled their duties as Queen/Princess or member of the Court. Following the conclusion of the Wayne County Fair, U.S. Savings Bonds will be mailed to the Queen/Princess & Court's home address after providing the recipient's social security number to the Pageant Superintendents.
- The decisions of the Queen/Princess Superintendents concerning discipline, or otherwise regarding the running of the pageant, ect., are final and they shall be the sole arbitrators of all such matters.
- Queen/Princess and Court are chosen on poise, personality, public speaking, interview, and evening gown competition. All the contestants will choose Miss Congeniality.
- There is no entry fee! Each contestant will be required to sell/purchase 4 books/$20.00 of drawing tickets for a Queen/Princess Pageant Drawing. The drawing will take place at the Wayne County Fair Queen/Princess Pageant. All proceeds will go towards pageant expenses.
- The top 35% or top 10 in the Queen's competition and the Princess competition will present a one-minute speech at the pageant. All contestants must prepare a one-minute speech.
- Any person chosen as Queen present or past are not eligible to compete in future Wayne County Fair Queen pageants. Any person chosen as Princess is ineligible to compete for Princess in future Wayne County Fair Queen pageants but may participate in future Wayne County Fair Queen competitions once they meet age requirements.
- Any discrepancies/problems should be reported to the Wayne County Fair Queen/Princess Superintendents IMMEDIATELY!
- Parent/guardian will be responsible for daughter's actions if selected to Queen/Princess court at all appearances. Queen, Princess and Miss Congeniality and members of the Courts are required to attend all scheduled parades. Exceptions will be granted in the case of accident, death in family, illness and emergencies. All members of the court will be required to attend the Wayne County Fair every day. A list of Fair rules will be handed out to winners selected in the court.
- Parent/guardian of Queen/Princess and Courts will be required to assist the Pageant Committee for at least one parade. This will require attending that one parade and staying with the Queen/Princess and Courts until drivers/automobiles arrive at parade line up. Wayne County Fair Queen/Princess Superintendents will work with the parent responsible for the parade.
- Up to ten (10) points will be awarded to the interview score. Two (2) points will be awarded for each pre-pageant event each contestant attends and two (2) points will be awarded for paperwork being turned in on time.
