

Applications Being Accepted For 2010 Wayne County Fair Apprentice

Attention high school Juniors and Seniors! The Wayne County Fair is looking for a current 2010 high school Junior or Senior to be the 2010 Wayne County Fair Apprentice. The Apprentice will have the opportunity to work with the Fair's, Board of Directors during the week of the Wayne County Fair August 9-14 and gain experience in learning what it is like to organize and run this annual event.

Awards:

- 1st Place $250 Cash Prize and title of "Wayne County Fair 2010 Apprentice"
- 2nd Place $50 Cash Prize
- 3rd Place Wayne County Fair Passes

The Wayne County Fair Board wants to give a young adult the opportunity to experience first hand what it is like to run an organization and event. Tomorrow's leaders will come from today's youth. The experience gained by the Apprentice may encourage someone to make entertainment and hospitality their career choice.

Applicants must be a current Junior or Senior in High School as of January 2010, complete an Apprentice application and submit a minimum 300 word typed essay titled "Why I Want To Be The Wayne County Fair Apprentice". Applications can be obtained at a Wayne County High School, on the Fair's web site www.waynecountyfair.org or by calling 315-597-5372. All applications must be postmarked by April 3, 2010.