PALMYRA SENIOR NAMED 2010 WAYNE COUNTY FAIR APPRENTICE

Kelsey Hamilton, an 18 year old senior was chosen as the 2010 Wayne County Fair Apprentice. Kelsey is a student at Palmyra-Macedon High School and the daughter of Paul and Barbara Hamilton. She has been an active member of the Wayne County 4-H program for the past 10 years. Kelsey is a member of the Palmyra-Macedon varsity softball, indoor track and swimming team. She is also a member of her school's Interact Club, Art Club, Sadd Youth Team and stage crew. Kelsey plans to attend SUNY Cobleskill majoring in Agricultural Business after graduating from high school in June. The Wayne County Fair Apprentice program is in its 4th year and is an opportunity for a high school junior or senior to shadow the Wayne County Fair Board of Directors. The Apprentice learns about how to run a large community event and will receive a $250 award at the 2010 Wayne County Fair, August 9-14 in Palmyra. Senior Alexandria Barner of Lyons was received 2nd place honors and Junior Timothy Fry of Sodus received 3rd Place. For more information on the Wayne County Fair, go to the Fair's web site www.waynecountyfair.org or call the Wayne County Fair at 315-597-5372.

SEE YOU AT THE FAIR!
