Exhibit Rules and Regulations

In an effort to maintain professional gallery practices, Wayne County Fair implements the following rules and regulations for its juried exhibits.

We ask that Artists and Art makers read and adhere to the rules and regulations, as The Wayne County Fair Domestic Department reserves the right to refuse submission to any Exhibit and will not accept artworks that do not comply to the stated rules and regulations.

Observing the following points ensures that your artwork will be exhibited in the best possible way.

We appreciate your support. ~ The Wayne County Fair Domestic Department 13

Originality and Prints

All entries must be original works and not previously shown in a Wayne County Fair Department. Please be mindful of copyright infringements.

Copies and reproductions of original works of art, whether embellished or not, are not eligible for submission to exhibits. However, fine art prints such as photographs, lithographs, woodcuts, engravings, etchings, screen prints and digital works are acceptable as long as they are labeled as such and numbered as an edition.

Size

Maximum size for all artwork, is as follows:

Two-dimensional work, 2D, measurements are 48" in width and 48" in height.

Three-dimensional work, 3D, measurements are 36" in circumference width 60" in height.

Two Dimensional Art and Framing

All works on paper, including photographs, must be framed. Glass and Plexiglas must be clean inside and out, unscratched and intact.

Works on canvas must be framed or have gallery-wrapped, finished edges with no staples visible.

Frames must be in good condition, free of scratches and loose corners.

Mats must be clean and smoothly cut.

A hanging wire must be firmly attached to the back with screw-eyes or D-rings, and the wire not exceeding the top of the frame.

2-D pieces with saw tooth hangers will not be accepted.

Dust covers or other backing material must be clean and intact.

Artwork must be completely dry at time of submission.

Three Dimensional Art

The Wayne County Fair is not accepting 3D art within Domestic Department Section 13 as of now. We are hoping to explore this option in the future. Please stay tuned.

Withdrawal

Work accepted for an exhibition may not be substituted, nor will any artwork be withdrawn during any exhibition, in any circumstance.

Review and Inclusion in Exhibition

All Entries will be reviewed at the time of submission to ensure adherence to the artwork condition rules and regulations of the exhibit.

Inclusion / Exclusion in the exhibit is at the sole discretion of the Juror (not connected with The Wayne County Fair and is non-negotiable). The Superintendent of the WCF Domestic Department and Wayne County Fair reviews artwork for adherence to the Wayne County Fair rules and regulations only and reserves the right to refuse submission based on the terms stated within.

The number of pieces included in the exhibit will depend upon the space available and the size of the artworks selected. On average, this will be between 10 and 20 pieces.

The Wayne County Fair reserves the right to turn away any submissions that it deems inappropriate for our younger viewers or offensive in subject matter.

Works with overtly pornographic, discriminatory or violent messages may be barred from submission per the Wayne County Fair Domestic Superintendent and/or Board of Directors.

Statement of Responsibility

All entries are left at the owner's risk—The Wayne County Fair is not responsible for any loss or damage to submitted artwork by any means whatsoever.
